a) Policy purpose

Team Members must behave responsibly and accept liability for damage caused through inappropriate behaviour.

b) Policy statement & implementation procedures

Paralympics Australia will be charged for any damage to Games accommodation during the period of the Games. PA may pass these costs on to any Team Member(s) responsible for causing damage by issuing them with an invoice for all or part of the amount. PA will cover the cost of any reasonable damage associated with daily living such as general wear and tear.

In addition, the offending Team Member(s) may be subject to disciplinary procedures if the damage occurred as a result of a behavioural breach of the PA Code of Conduct. All damage will be assessed on a case-by-case basis by the Chef de Mission or a member of the Team Executive

The Games Organising Committee will do a pre-inspection of all Games accommodation prior to the Team's arrival. A departure check will also take place where any items damaged will be invoiced to the National Paralympic Committee.

Each Team Member will be required to sign out of their accommodation prior to being released from the Team and declare any damage as part of the process.

c) Applicability

This policy applies to all Team Members.

d) Policy officer/contact

This policy is managed by the Chef de Mission.

e) Authority

This policy is authorised by the PA Board for immediate implementation.
